KTEE - So

Happy Valentine's Day!

What better way to celebrate this fine occasion than with a hot premiere?

Austria's own KTEE presents 'So What', releasing today

'So What' follows two other singles which amassed a nice following for KTEE. In fact, 'Rollercoaster' and 'Rock Your Life' (both acoustic versions) added up over 97,000 YouTube views for the singer, and she looks to grow further with this latest release.

This latest track is an empowering one, as KTEE sings about overcoming self-doubt and ultimately bettering one's self. She is clearly aiming to inspire young women to follow their dreams and live up to their full potential, and does so in a catchy, punchy package of 'So What'. Don't take our word for it though, listen to the wonderful tune below

Citing her influences as some of the most successful female pop artists, including Rita Ora, Zara Larsson, Dua Lipa and Jessie J, KTEE has been passionate about music since she was a young girl. She studied and analysed music for years and years, before making her debut on the TV programme The Voice, where she truly learned how to get the best out of her music. Following this, she relocated to Ireland, and begun making her mark in the pop world with her KTEE name.

KTEE's motto; "Dare to do what you love, remain true to yourself, make something out of it and don't take life too seriously" is something that is reflected heavily in her songs. Her music is an uplifting and inspiring message, and you can be damn sure she'll be spreading her message throughout 2018 as we eagerly await future releases!
